incisive material!

If you've heard of Class War, the paper, or the Class War Federation, and want to find out more about our politics, ideas, what we're for and what we're most definitely against, you could do worse than to subscribe to Class War.

If you're still interested, a Turbo sub will sort you out with a copy of 'Unfinished Business', an easy-to-read book of our politics to date. If this gets you going, each issue of the paper gives a list of contacts around Britain for you to get in touch with your nearest Class War group. And don't waste paper: pass this leaflet around your friends, workmates and family! We hope to hear from you soon...
